Chairman's letter

24 December 2008

Dear Sydney Gas Shareholder,

I am pleased to enclose a Bidder's Statement, which contains an offer (the "Offer") from AGL Energy Limited ("AGL") to acquire all of the issued ordinary shares of Sydney Gas Limited ("SGL") not already owned by it, as well as information relevant to the Offer. AGL is offering 42.5 cents cash for every ordinary share in SGL. AGL believes this is a very attractive Offer.

This all-cash Offer represents:

- a 55 per cent premium to the closing price of 27.5 cents per SGL ordinary share on the ASX on the last Trading Day for SGL ordinary shares prior to the Announcement Date;
- a 117 per cent premium to the 30 day volume weighted average price of SGL ordinary shares on the ASX to the last Trading Day for SGL ordinary shares prior to the Announcement Date of 19.5 cents; and
- a 92 per cent premium to the 90 day volume weighted average price of SGL ordinary shares on the ASX to the last Trading Day for SGL ordinary shares prior to the Announcement Date of 22.2 cents.

The Directors of SGL unanimously recommend that you ACCEPT the AGL Offer in the absence of a superior proposal.

AGL has entered into Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds with SGL's two largest shareholders, AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown, to acquire 14.8 per cent and 5.0 per cent of their, or their associates', respective shareholdings in SGL. AGL's interests under these Deeds mean that AGL has a relevant interest in 19.8 per cent of SGL Shares.

The SGL Directors who hold or control SGL Shares have stated that, in the absence of a superior proposal, they intend to accept the Offer in respect of the shareholdings they own or control.

In addition, AJ Lucas has announced its intention to accept the Offer for the balance of its shareholding (approximately 5.2 per cent of SGL's ordinary share capital) in the absence of a superior proposal and Babcock & Brown has announced its intention to accept the Offer for the balance of its shareholding in the absence of a superior proposal. Babcock & Brown has also announced its intention to convert the 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes it holds into SGL ordinary shares and accept the resultant SGL ordinary shares into the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal. Upon conversion, those SGL ordinary shares will represent approximately 8.4 per cent of SGL's total issued ordinary shares.

In November 2005, AGL entered into a 50/50 joint venture agreement with SGL to develop the coal seam gas ("CSG") resource in the Sydney Basin. This agreement governs the management of the Camden Project (which is operated by AGL) and the Hunter Project (operated by SGL). The Camden Project supplies an indigenous gas source of approximately 5.3 petajoules (PJ) per annum into the Sydney market. AGL has a unique knowledge of the assets and the financial resources to continue their development.

In Australia's rapidly consolidating gas industry, a combination of the CSG assets of AGL and SGL would create a larger entity able to compete more effectively with international players and with the financial resources to fund the future development of the Camden and Hunter Projects. The combined gas reserves of AGL and SGL would be 534PJ of 2P reserves.

As AGL's Offer is subject only to limited conditions, AGL intends to stand in the market to acquire all SGL ordinary shares not owned by it at prices up to the Offer price of 42.5 cents per SGL ordinary share. If you sell your shares on the ASX this will require you to pay brokerage for the sale, however, you will receive payment for this trade more quickly than if you accept the Offer.

I encourage you to read this Bidder's Statement for more details about the Offer and about AGL. The Offer is open for your acceptance until 7.00pm (AEDT) on 13 February 2009, unless extended. If you wish to accept the Offer, please complete and return the enclosed Acceptance Form so that it is received before the Offer closes. A summary of how to accept is also set out in Section 1.2 of the Bidder's Statement.

If you have any questions in relation to the Offer, please contact your legal, financial or other professional adviser or call the AGL Offer Information Line on 1300 546 284 (or +61 3 9946 4459 for overseas domiciled holders) between 9.00am and 5.00pm (AEDT) Monday to Friday.

AGL's off-market cash Offer represents a certain return on your investment. I strongly recommend you accept the Offer for the reasons set out in this Bidder's Statement.

Yours sincerely

Mark Johnson
Chairman

Through pre-bid agreements with AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown, AGL has a relevant interest in 79,570,523 SGL Shares which represents 19.8 per cent of SGL's issued ordinary share capital. Section 2 of the Bidder's Statement contains further information about AGL.

AGL is offering to acquire all of your shares in SGL by way of an off-market takeover bid. The Offer relates to all SGL Shares on issue on the Register Date together with those which are issued following the exercise of SGL Options or conversion of SGL Convertible Notes prior to the close of the Offer Period.
Offer Period	The Offer closes at 7.00pm (AEDT) on 13 February 2009, unless it is extended or withdrawn by the Bidder.
How to Accept and Payment Date	If you accept the Offer and the Offer becomes unconditional, AGL will pay you the consideration under the Offer by the earlier of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– 21 days after the end of the Offer Period; or– one month after the later of receipt of your valid acceptance and the date on which the Offer becomes unconditional.
On market acquisitions	AGL intends to stand in the market to acquire all SGL Shares not owned by it at prices up to the Offer price of 42.5 cents cash per SGL Share during normal trading on the ASX. SGL Shareholders who sell their SGL Shares on the ASX will receive payment on a T+3 basis (being three Trading Days after the date of the transaction). SGL Shareholders who sell their SGL Shares on the ASX cannot subsequently accept the Offer in respect of SGL Shares sold on the ASX. Refer to Sections 1.2 and 1.3 of the Bidder's Statement for further details.

Broker fees	There are no brokerage costs in accepting the Offer. If you sell Your SGL Shares on the ASX you will need to pay brokerage.

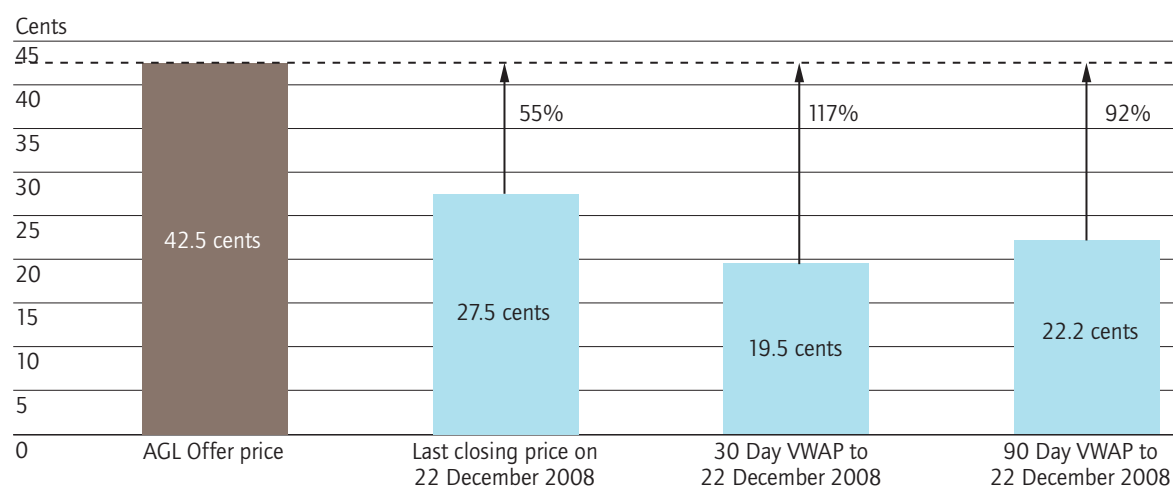

Why you should accept the AGL Offer

1. Substantial premium to recent share price performance

AGL's cash Offer of 42.5 cents per SGL Share represents a substantial premium to SGL's pre-announcement share price performance:

- a 55 per cent premium to the closing price of 27.5 cents per SGL Share on the ASX on the last Trading Day for SGL Shares prior to the Announcement Date;
- a 117 per cent premium to the 30 day volume weighted average price of SGL Shares on the ASX to the last Trading Day for SGL Shares prior to the Announcement Date of 19.5 cents; and
- a 92 per cent premium to the 90 day volume weighted average price of SGL Shares on the ASX to the last Trading Day for SGL Shares prior to the Announcement Date of 22.2 cents.

2. Major shareholder support

AGL has entered into Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds to acquire 14.8 per cent of SGL Shares from AJ Lucas and 5.0 per cent of SGL Shares from associates of Babcock & Brown. In addition, AJ Lucas has announced an intention to accept the Offer in respect to the balance of its shareholding in SGL (approximately 5.2 per cent of SGL Shares) in the absence of a superior proposal and Babcock & Brown has announced an intention to accept the Offer for the balance of its shareholding in SGL, in the absence of a superior proposal.

Babcock & Brown has also announced its intention to convert the 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes it holds into SGL Shares and accept the resultant SGL Shares into the Offer in the absence of a superior proposal. Upon conversion, those SGL Shares will represent approximately 8.4 per cent of SGL's total issued ordinary shares.

Why you should accept the AGL Offer

3. SGL Directors' unanimous recommendations

The SGL Board unanimously recommends the Offer in the absence of a higher offer. All SGL Directors who own SGL Shares have stated their intention to accept the Offer in respect of all SGL Shares that they own or control, in the absence of a superior proposal.

4. 100 per cent cash consideration: certain and immediate value for SGL Shares

AGL's Offer to acquire SGL Shares is for 100 per cent cash consideration. This gives SGL Shareholders certainty about the value of the consideration being offered (subject to the Offer conditions being satisfied). This may be particularly attractive for SGL Shareholders, given the significant risks associated with SGL's business, including:

Funding risks:

- SGL may need to secure additional equity and/or debt to fund further capital expenditure, particularly the development of the Hunter Project, to achieve its stated objectives; and
- given SGL's recent share price performance and current financial market conditions, AGL believes that it may be difficult for SGL to source equity or debt funding in the near term. In addition, any further equity raising may dilute existing SGL Shareholders.

Lack of scale:

- SGL currently has certified 2P reserves of 41PJ, which is significantly less than the major players in the sector (refer Figure 2);
- AGL is a Top 50 ASX listed company, with significant CSG resources, through its interest in the Moranbah Project in Queensland, options to acquire acreage in the Queensland Surat Basin, the recently acquired Gloucester Basin asset in New South Wales and its existing 50 per cent interest in the Sydney Basin; and
- AGL has the resources and experience to more effectively compete in the rapidly consolidating CSG sector and accelerate development of the Sydney Basin.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, AGL has the principal business groups described below.

The Retail Energy group is responsible for the sale and marketing of gas, electricity and related customer services to AGL's customer base.

AGL increased its sales and marketing activity during FY08. Total billable customer accounts were increased by approximately 34,000 compared with the previous year.

The Merchant Energy businesses, as from December 2008, are responsible for developing, operating and maintaining AGL's power generation portfolio of assets, developing AGL's carbon strategy, and managing the risks associated with the procurement and delivery of electricity for AGL's wholesale and retail portfolios and managing the short term elements of gas contract and portfolio management. The businesses use financial hedges, bilateral contracts and physical generation to achieve competitively priced supply.

AGL's Gas and Power Development group focuses on the opportunities in acquiring direct equity gas.

During FY08, the Gas and Power Development group completed the construction of the Hallett 1 wind farm, committed to the development of the Hallett 2 wind farm and secured the development rights to the Hallett 3 and Hallett 4 wind farms.

In addition, AGL's stakes in QGC and PNG oil and gas interests were divested in the last quarter of calendar year 2008. AGL also acquired CSG assets in the Gloucester Basin and options over CSG assets in the Surat Basin in the last quarter of calendar year 2008.

The Gas and Power Development group will continue to execute equity gas transactions, explore for new gas resources, develop and operate gas production and manage gas assets.

2.3 Capital management initiatives

Commencing in FY07, AGL has undertaken a critical review of its portfolio with a plan to divest non-core assets to provide financial capacity for it to participate in new opportunities in Australian energy markets.

Following on from this review, AGL has divested its interests in:

- AlintaAGL;
- GasValpo; and
- Elgas.

These disposals, together with AGL's divestment of its investment in QGC and PNG oil and gas interests, have realised approximately $3.2 billion, thereby reducing AGL's debt and allowing for investments in assets that better fit with AGL's integrated energy strategy.

Information on SGL

3 Information on SGL

3.1 Profile of SGL

SGL is an Australian gas exploration company whose current activities are the development of CSG resources in New South Wales. SGL was established in 1987 and is the first CSG producer in New South Wales. It commenced delivering CSG to the Greater Sydney Pipeline System in May 2001.

SGL is listed on the ASX and, based on a closing price of 27.5 cents on the Trading Day immediately prior to the Announcement Date, had a market capitalisation of approximately $110.7 million.

During 2005 SGL entered into a joint venture with AGL for the further development of CSG in New South Wales. SGL holds in joint venture with AGL four Petroleum Exploration Licences (PELs 2, 4, 5 and 267) covering nearly 17,326 square kilometres and five Petroleum Production Leases (PPLs 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6) covering 213 square kilometres. The joint venture comprises three projects: the Camden Project, the Hunter Project and the Sydney Project. AGL is the operator of the Camden Project and SGL is the operator of the Hunter Project and the Sydney Project.

The SGL and AGL joint venture in relation to the Camden Project is currently producing approximately 5.3 petajoules of gas annually at Camden, which represents approximately 3.8 per cent of the total New South Wales gas market.

The SGL and AGL joint venture in relation to the Hunter Project covers two PELs, PEL 267 and PEL 4, over 10,126 square kilometres in the Hunter Region of New South Wales. An exploration program is underway with seismic surveys, drilling of core holes and test wells and reservoir characterisation.

The SGL and AGL joint venture in relation to the Sydney Project has two PELs, PEL 2 and PEL 5, covering 6,913 square kilometres in the Central Coast and Sydney region of New South Wales. A technical review is continuing to assess potential gas reserves in these licence areas.

AGL understands that SGL has the following certified reserves¹:

- 2P reserves: 41PJ; and
- 3P reserves: 54PJ.

In February 2008 SGL entered into a strategic partnership with AJ Lucas under which AJ Lucas became a substantial shareholder in SGL and also agreed to provide technical services and drilling services to SGL. The agreement involved the placement to AJ Lucas of approximately 15 per cent of the then issued capital of SGL for a price of approximately $18 million. AJ Lucas also has the opportunity to acquire additional shares in SGL by subscribing $12.1 million and $15.1 million development capital by exercising of the AJ Lucas Options, being two performance linked options, which may be exercised subject to specified performance indicators having been met. Each of these options, if exercised, would result in the issue of 20,627,172 SGL Shares (aggregating 41,254,344 SGL Shares). As part of this arrangement Andrew Lukas, a Director of AJ Lucas, was appointed as CEO of SGL and Allan Campbell, the Chairman and CEO of AJ Lucas, was appointed as a Director of SGL. Mr Campbell is now the Chairman of SGL.

3.2 Directors

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement the Directors of SGL are:

Mr Allan Campbell
Chairman, Non-executive Director

Mr John Moore
Non-executive Director

Mr Raymond Fung
Non-executive Director

Mr Warren Murphy

3 Information on SGL

3.3 Substantial Shareholders

Based on publicly available information, each of the following persons had the following substantial shareholdings in the issued ordinary share capital of SGL on the Announcement Date.

SGL Shareholder	SGL Shares	%
AJ Lucas Group	80,508,207	19.99
Deutsche Bank Group	26,463,876*	6.56
Babcock & Brown Group	26,387,323	6.56
Saad Financial Services SA	23,387,254	5.81

* AGL understands that 26,387,323 of the SGL Shares referred to in the Deutsche Bank Group substantial holder notice are the subject of a prime brokerage agreement with Babcock & Brown.

The shareholding of AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown will change in accordance with the arrangements noted at Section 8.2 of this Bidder's Statement.

3.4 Publicly available information

The information in this Section 3 has been prepared based on a review of publicly available information concerning SGL. It has not been verified and AGL does not make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information. The information should not be considered comprehensive.

Further information relating to SGL's businesses and issued securities may be included in SGL's Target's Statement in relation to the Offer.

SGL is a company listed on the ASX and is subject to the periodic and continuous disclosure requirements of the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules. For more information concerning the financial position and affairs of SGL, you should refer to the full range of information that has been disclosed by SGL pursuant to those obligations.

A copy of SGL's annual report for the financial year ended 30 June 2008 was lodged with the ASX on 28 October 2008.

AGL's intentions

4 AGL's intentions

4.1 Overview

This Section 4 sets out AGL's intentions, on the basis of the facts and information concerning SGL that are known to AGL, in relation to the following:

- the continuation of the businesses of SGL;
- any major changes to businesses of SGL and any redeployment of the fixed assets of SGL; and
- the future employment of the present employees of SGL.

AGL and its advisers have reviewed information that is publicly available concerning SGL and its businesses and assets. In addition, AGL and its advisers have also reviewed other information concerning the Camden Project, the Hunter Project and the Sydney Project which is available to AGL as a partner in those joint ventures with SGL.

However, AGL has not undertaken any formal due diligence in relation to SGL's businesses in connection with the Offer and consequently does not believe that it is aware of all material information, facts and circumstances that may be necessary to enable it to assess all of the operational, commercial, taxation and financial implications of its current intentions.

At the conclusion of its offer AGL will, to the extent to which it is able, conduct a review of SGL and its businesses, assets, liabilities and employees following which it will review its intentions as set out in this Section 4.

Consequently, the statements set out in this Section 4 are statements of AGL's current intention only, which may change as new information becomes available or circumstances change. The statements in this Section 4 should be read in this context.

4.2 Intentions upon acquiring 90 per cent or more of SGL Shares

AGL's intentions, if it acquires a relevant interest in more than 90 per cent of SGL's Shares and is entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the outstanding SGL Shares, are set out below.

Compulsory acquisition

If AGL becomes entitled to do so under the Corporations Act, it intends to dispatch notices seeking the compulsory acquisition of all outstanding SGL Shares in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act and to proceed with the compulsory acquisition of all outstanding SGL Options in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act.

ASX Listing

AGL intends to procure the removal of SGL Shares from the Official List of the ASX at the conclusion of the compulsory acquisition process.

Directors

AGL intends to replace all members of the Board of SGL, its subsidiaries and any company in respect of which SGL has nominated directors, with its own nominees.

SGL Convertible Notes

Babcock & Brown has also announced its intention to convert the 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes it holds into SGL Shares and accept the resultant SGL Shares into the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal. Upon conversion, those SGL Shares will represent approximately 8.4 per cent of SGL's total issued ordinary shares.

Accordingly AGL anticipates that there will be no SGL Convertible Notes on issue at the close of the Offer Period.

SGL's businesses, assets and employees

If AGL compulsorily acquires all outstanding SGL securities, SGL will become a wholly owned subsidiary of AGL and hence the AGL Group will own 100 per cent of each of the Hunter Project, the Camden Project and the Sydney Project. Subject to the other matters described in this Bidder's Statement, AGL intends to operate these projects in accordance with usual industry practice.

SGL's main business activity is carrying out exploration in the Sydney Basin in which each of the Sydney Project and the Hunter Project are located. Consistent with AGL's target of increasing its ownership of gas reserves, AGL intends to continue the exploration and appraisal programs commenced by SGL in the Sydney Basin but may, given its superior financial position, consider increasing the pace of exploration and appraisal programs for the Hunter Project to accelerate SGL's reserves certification program.

On 17 December 2008, AGL announced that it had entered into an agreement to acquire 100 per cent of the interests in PEL 285 in the Gloucester Basin. AGL anticipates that there will be opportunities to extract operational synergies from developing PEL 285 in combination with the nearby Hunter Project and the Sydney Project.

AGL believes that the current SGL employees have been important to the growth of SGL's business and anticipates that it will continue the employment of the majority of SGL's employees. However, following completion of the Offer, AGL will conduct a review of the employment functions of SGL. AGL anticipates that the review will disclose duplication in some activities and functions, primarily in head office roles, and as a consequence some SGL employees are likely to be made redundant. In the event of redundancies, AGL will recognise and comply with the redundancy terms of all relevant employment contracts and industrial agreements or awards.

4.3 Intentions upon acquiring more than 50 per cent but less than 90 per cent of SGL Shares

AGL's intentions, if it acquires a relevant interest in more than 50 per cent but less than 90 per cent of SGL Shares, are set out below.

ASX Listing

AGL will maintain the listing of SGL on the ASX as long as SGL meets the requirements of the Listing Rules for maintaining a listing, including there being a sufficient spread of SGL Shareholders.

Depending on the level of acceptances of the Offer, it is possible that the ASX may seek to delist SGL if, in the ASX's opinion, there is an insufficient spread of shareholdings to ensure an orderly and liquid market in SGL securities. If the ASX proposes to delist SGL on this basis, AGL's current intention is that it would not oppose this delisting.

Directors

AGL intends, subject to the Corporations Act and SGL's Constitution, to seek to re-constitute the Board of Directors of SGL to reflect AGL's majority ownership of SGL. However, AGL intends to ensure that SGL has at least one independent director while it remains listed on the ASX.

SGL's businesses, assets and employees

If after the close of the Offer SGL is a controlled entity but not a wholly owned subsidiary of AGL, then AGL intends to attempt to procure that the SGL Board implements the intentions of AGL which are outlined in Section 4.2 above to the extent possible and appropriate.

In addition, but subject to all applicable legal requirements, AGL will seek to become appointed as the operator of the Hunter Project in substitution for SGL.

4 AGL's intentions

Dividends

AGL intends to maintain SGL's current policy of not declaring dividends.

Capital raisings

SGL's existing business plan and the current intentions of AGL in relation to the development of SGL's businesses will require significant capital expenditure. It may be necessary to undertake a substantial equity offering either alone or in conjunction with raising debt capital to fund SGL's anticipated capital expenditure requirements. AGL has not finalised its intentions in this regard and accordingly the form and timing of any future capital raisings or debt raisings have not been determined at this time.

Limitations on intentions

If at the conclusion of the Offer SGL is a controlled entity but is not a wholly owned subsidiary of AGL there will be minority SGL Shareholders. In this event AGL expects that the directors appointed by it will act at all times in accordance with their fiduciary duties and intends that all requisite shareholder approvals and other requirements of law, including the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules, are complied with in pursuing any of the intentions which are referred to above.

As a result of these requirements the approval of minority SGL Shareholders may be required for the implementation of any of the intentions outlined above. The requirement for SGL Directors to have regard to their fiduciary duties in the context of a partly owned subsidiary and the possible requirement to seek approval of minority SGL shareholders may prevent a particular intention from being achieved.

4.4 Intentions if AGL acquires less than 50.1 per cent of SGL Shares

If AGL acquires less than 50.1 per cent of SGL Shares, it intends to seek to obtain representation on the SGL Board which is commensurate with the level of its shareholding in SGL. AGL may in the future acquire further SGL Shares subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act.

4.5 Intentions generally

Subject to the above, AGL intends on the basis of the facts and information concerning SGL which are known to it:

- to continue the businesses of SGL;
- not to make any major changes to the businesses of SGL or to redeploy SGL's fixed assets; and
- to continue the employment of SGL's present employees.

Information on SGL securities

5 Information on SGL securities

5.1 Capital structure

According to the most recent Appendix 5B lodged by SGL with the ASX, the total number of securities in SGL as at the date of this Bidder's Statement is as follows:

- (a) 402,543,433 SGL Shares;
- (b) 45,114,344 SGL Options (including 41,254,344 AJ Lucas Options issued to AJ Lucas); and
- (c) 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes.

5.2 SGL Options

AJ Lucas Options

According to the most recent Appendix 5B lodged by SGL with the ASX, AGL understands that there are 41,254,344 AJ Lucas Options on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. These options were issued following a meeting of SGL Shareholders on 15 August 2008 to approve their issue.

The AJ Lucas Options comprise two equal tranches of options (each comprising 20,627,172 options) with the first tranche having an exercise price of 60 cents and the second tranche having an exercise price of 75 cents.

Based on AGL's review of public filings made by SGL, AGL understands that, except as described below, the AJ Lucas Options can only be exercised if certain performance hurdles are satisfied (which relate to the level of 2P reserves of SGL and the price at which SGL Shares trade on the ASX) and after the expiration of a period of time from their date of issue (two years from issue in the case of the first tranche of AJ Lucas Options and three years from issue in the case of the second tranche of AJ Lucas Options).

SGL's public filings also indicate that notwithstanding the performance hurdles mentioned above, all of the AJ Lucas Options will become immediately exercisable if:

- any person acquires control (as that term is defined in the Corporations Act) of SGL;
- there is a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of SGL and its subsidiaries; or
- SGL ceases to be the exploration operator of the Hunter Project and the Sydney Project.

AGL does not intend to make takeover offers for the AJ Lucas Options, including for the reason that the exercise price of these options is substantially below the Offer price. However, if AGL proceeds to compulsory acquisition of outstanding SGL Shares at the end of the Offer Period, it is required to, and intends to, make offers to acquire all outstanding AJ Lucas Options in accordance with Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

Other Options

According to the most recent Appendix 5B lodged by SGL with the ASX, AGL understands that there are an additional 3,860,000 SGL Options on issue with exercise prices between 88.5 cents and $1.04 per SGL Option. It is not clear to AGL based on SGL's public disclosures whether those SGL Options are presently exercisable or whether the Offer accelerates the time at which these SGL Options become exercisable.

AGL does not intend to make takeover offers for these SGL Options, including for the reason that the exercise price of these options is substantially below the Offer price. However, if AGL proceeds to compulsory acquisition of outstanding SGL Shares at the end of the Offer Period, it is required to, and intends to, make offers to acquire all outstanding SGL Options in accordance with Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

AGL will not rely on any breach of a Defeating Condition caused by the issue of SGL Shares on the exercise of SGL Options to terminate the Offer.

5.3 SGL Convertible Notes

Babcock & Brown has also announced its intention to convert the 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes it holds into SGL Shares and accept the resultant SGL Shares into the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal. Upon conversion, those SGL Shares will represent approximately 8.4 per cent of SGL's total issued ordinary shares.

Accordingly, AGL anticipates that there will be no SGL Convertible Notes on issue at the close of the Offer Period.

AGL will not rely on any breach of a Defeating Condition caused by the issue of SGL Shares on the conversion of an SGL Convertible Note to terminate the Offer.

5.4 Details of relevant interests in SGL securities and voting power

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement:

- AGL has a relevant interest in 79,570,523 SGL Shares; and
- AGL has voting power in SGL of 19.8 per cent.

As at 6 January 2009:

- AGL has a relevant interest in 224,906,756 SGL Shares; and
- AGL has voting power in SGL of 55.9 per cent.

The number of SGL Shares that AGL has a relevant interest in immediately before the first Offer is sent to SGL Shareholders and AGL's voting power in SGL at that time, will be disclosed in the most recent notice of change of interests of substantial shareholder lodged with SGL and the ASX before the first Offer is sent.

5.5 Consideration provided for SGL securities during previous four months

Except as set out below, AGL and its associates have not acquired or disposed of SGL securities during the period of four months ending on the day immediately before the date of the Offer.

On 23 December 2008, AGL entered into Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds with AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown, under which those parties agreed to accept or procure the acceptance of the Offer in respect of an aggregate number of 79,570,523 SGL Shares (representing approximately 19.8 per cent of SGL Shares). Further details of these Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds are set out in Section 8.2.

5.6 Inducing benefits given during previous four months

Except as set out in this Bidder's Statement, neither AGL nor any of its associates has, during the period of four months ending on the day immediately before the date of the Offer, given, offered or agreed to give, a benefit to another person where the benefit was likely to induce the other person, or an associate, to:

- (a) accept the Offer; or
- (b) dispose of SGL Shares, which benefit was not offered to all SGL Shareholders under the Offer.

Funding

6 Funding

6.1 Maximum cash consideration

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement AGL understands that there are 402,543,433 SGL Shares on issue. The consideration for the acquisition of those SGL Shares to which the Offer relates will be satisfied wholly in cash. If the Offer is accepted in respect of all of those SGL Shareholders, the consideration payable to those SGL Shareholders will be approximately $171.1 million.

In addition, Babcock & Brown has also announced its intention to convert the 155,944 SGL Convertible Notes it holds into SGL Shares and accept the resultant SGL Shares into the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal. AGL understands that an additional 36,692,705 SGL Shares will be issued on conversion of the SGL Convertible Notes held by Babcock & Brown. The consideration payable under the Offer in respect of such SGL Shares will be approximately $15.6 million.

The above assumes that no holder of SGL Options exercises SGL Options and accepts the Offer in respect of the Shares which are issued upon such exercise. This is a reasonable assumption as all of the SGL Options are out of the money at the Offer price. If, however, all holders of SGL Options exercise those SGL Options and accept the Offer then the additional consideration payable in respect of the SGL Shares resulting from such exercise would be approximately $19.2 million.

6.2 AGL's funding arrangements

The funds required to pay the consideration for the acquisition of SGL Shares pursuant to the Offer will be obtained by AGL utilising its existing cash reserves.

The funds available to AGL from its existing cash reserves materially exceed the maximum consideration payable pursuant to the Offer and transaction costs, including adviser fees, payable in connection with the Offer.

Accordingly, AGL is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming, and it holds, the view that it will be able to pay the consideration required for the acquisition of SGL Shares pursuant to the Offer to satisfy its obligations under the Offer.

The Offer is not subject to any financing conditions.

6.3 Particulars of cash reserves

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, AGL and its wholly owned subsidiaries have cash reserves of approximately $1.8 billion on deposit with various financial institutions, which are available to be utilised to pay the whole or part of the consideration payable for the acquisition of SGL Shares under the Offer.

Dear Directors

AGL Energy Limited (AGL) offer for Sydney Gas Limited (SGL) Australian Taxation Report

You have instructed us to prepare this taxation report (report) for inclusion in AGL's Bidder's Statement in relation to the offmarket takeover bid (Offer) to holders of ordinary shares (shares) in SGL.

The report outlines the general Australian income tax, stamp duty and goods and services tax (GST) consequences for SGL shareholders who sell their shares pursuant to the Offer.

The comments outlined below reflect the income tax, stamp duty and GST laws and regulations as at 9am of the date of the report. They do not take into account proposed or anticipated changes of law and do not take into account laws (including tax laws) of countries other than Australia.

The report does not consider:

- all possible Australian tax considerations for every SGL shareholder;
- the position of SGL shareholders who do not hold their SGL shares solely on capital account – for example, where they buy and sell shares in the ordinary course of business or where they hold their shares on revenue account or as trading stock;
- the consequences for SGL shareholders who are not residents of Australia for income tax purposes, and who hold (or use) or have held (or used) their shares at any time as an asset of a permanent establishment in Australia (or in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment);
- the position of SGL shareholders who acquired their shares under an employee share or option plan; and
- the position of SGL shareholders who are subject to special taxation rules (for example, banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation funds, dealers in securities).

If any SGL shareholder is a subsidiary member of a consolidated group or a MEC (multiple entry consolidated) group (MEC group) (both as defined in Part 3-90 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997), a reference to that SGL shareholder should be read as a reference to the head entity of that consolidated group or MEC group.

This information contained in this report is of a general nature only. The report is not taxation advice and should not be relied upon as such.

Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation.

7 Taxation implications

LAWYERS

We recommend that each SGL shareholder seek their own professional advice in relation to the disposal of their SGL shares pursuant to the Offer, taking into account their individual circumstances and the applicable laws (including in their country of residence) at the time of the disposal of their shares.

1 Taxation on the disposal of SGL shares

If you sell your shares pursuant to the Offer, you will need to consider the application of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (both referred to as the income tax law) and in particular, the capital gains tax provisions contained in the income tax law.

1.1 Australian resident SGL shareholders

SGL shareholders will derive a capital gain in relation to the disposal of an SGL share to the extent that the amount they receive (or are entitled to receive) for the disposal of that SGL share is more than their "cost base" in the SGL share.

SGL shareholders will realise a capital loss to the extent that the amount they receive (or are entitled to receive) for the disposal of an SGL share is less than the "reduced cost base" of that SGL share. Capital losses may only be offset against capital gains realised during the income year or in later income years (subject to any rules which may deny or restrict the use of such losses in the current or a later income year). They cannot be used to reduce a shareholder's income which is not a capital gain.

SGL shareholders will need to consider the consequences for the disposal of different parcels of shares that they own and acquired at different times. It may be possible that they have derived capital gains on some and capital losses on others.

Generally, a shareholder's cost base in an SGL share is the total amount they paid for that SGL share including their acquisition and disposal costs in respect of the share. However, there are special rules which can affect what the cost base is in that share. The reduced cost base of an SGL share is usually determined in a similar (but not identical) manner. Again special rules may apply to modify the general rules regarding reduced cost base. We recommend that SGL shareholders speak to their professional tax adviser to help them determine the correct cost base and reduced cost base in their shares.

Net capital gains of SGL shareholders for the income year are included in their assessable income. Broadly, the net capital gain in respect of an income year is the total of all of the capital gains derived during the income year less any capital losses realised in the income year and any net capital losses arising in previous income years (on the assumption those current year and prior year net capital losses can be utilised). That amount may be reduced further by other concessions, particularly under the discount capital gains tax rules.

Under the discount capital gains tax rules, certain categories of SGL shareholders, including, individuals and trusts may be eligible for discount capital gains treatment in relation to the SGL shares that the shareholder has held for at least 12 months (excluding the day of acquisition and the day of disposal, in the case of both days, as determined under the capital gains tax rules) at the time they are taken to have disposed of their SGL shares. The discount percentage for individuals is 50% (this discount percentage is applied to any remaining discount capital gain). Companies are not eligible for discount capital gains treatment.

1.2 Non-resident SGL shareholders

If the SGL shareholder is not a resident of Australia for income tax purposes, they will generally not have to pay Australian income tax on any capital gain when they dispose of their SGL shares, unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

- the SGL shareholder holds a “non-portfolio interest” in SGL. Broadly, an SGL shareholder will hold a “non-portfolio interest” in SGL if it (together with its associates) own, or owned, throughout a 12 month period during the two years preceding the sale of their SGL shares (such sale time being determined under the capital gains tax rules), 10 per cent or more of (broadly) all of the shares in SGL; and
- the SGL shares pass the “principal asset test” at the time of the disposal for capital gains tax purposes. In broad terms, SGL shares would pass the “principal asset test” if the market value of SGL’s direct and indirect interests in Australian land (including leases and mining rights) is more than the market value of its other assets at the time of the disposal for capital gains tax purposes. Detailed calculations are necessary to determine the results of the “principal asset test”, particularly when tracing through interposed entities.

If either element is absent, any capital gain made on the disposal of the SGL shares should not be subject to income tax in Australia.

If an SGL shareholder holds a “non-portfolio interest” in SGL, then they should contact SGL to help them determine if their SGL shares would pass the “principal asset test”.

Except in very limited circumstances, we would not anticipate that a non-resident SGL shareholder would be entitled to claim a capital loss under the Australian capital gains tax rules.

2 Stamp duty

No stamp duty will be payable by the SGL shareholders on the disposal of their shares pursuant to the Offer.

3 GST

No GST will be payable by the SGL shareholders on the disposal of their shares pursuant to the Offer.

SGL shareholders who are registered for GST may not be entitled to full input tax credits for any GST incurred on costs associated with the disposal of their shares.

Yours faithfully
Gilbert + Tobin

The only Defeating Conditions of the Offer are that “no prescribed occurrences” occur between the Announcement Date and the end of the Offer Period. Further details of this condition are set out in Section 9.8(a).

8.2 Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds and Convertible Notes Acquisition Agreement

On 23 December 2008, SGL's largest shareholders, AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown, entered into separate Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds with AGL, where AJ Lucas and Babcock & Brown have agreed to accept or procure the acceptance of AGL's Offer by no later than two Business Days after SGL has lodged its Target's Statement with ASIC in response to the Offer for an aggregate number of 79,570,523 SGL Shares comprising 59,570,523 SGL Shares held by AJ Lucas and 20,000,000 SGL Shares held by associates of Babcock & Brown.

The Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds terminate in a number of circumstances, including where AGL fails to increase the Offer price to match the price offered under a superior proposal.

Complete copies of the Pre-Bid Acceptance Deeds will be attached to a substantial holder notice in respect of SGL lodged by AGL with the ASX on 24 December 2008.

8.3 Agreement with SGL

SGL has entered into an agreement with AGL dated 23 December 2008 in respect of the Offer. Under that agreement:

- (a) the SGL Board has unanimously agreed to recommend that SGL Shareholders accept the Offer in respect of their SGL Shares and not change that recommendation, in the absence of a superior proposal emerging;
- (b) SGL must provide on a timely basis any assistance and information reasonably requested by AGL to enable AGL to prepare and finalise its Bidder's Statement;
- (c) SGL must provide AGL and its advisers with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on a draft of SGL's Target's Statement prior to lodgement of the Target's Statement with ASIC;
- (d) SGL has agreed to lodge its Target's Statement with ASIC by the seventh day after AGL has given notice under section 633 item 9 of the Corporations Act that it has completed its dispatch of this Bidder's Statement to SGL Shareholders but in any event not before 19 January 2009; and
- (e) SGL covenants that it will, in the period between the Announcement Date and the close of the Offer, conduct the business of SGL in the ordinary course and keep all SGL petroleum titles in good standing.

Pursuant to the Class Order, the consent of the relevant person is not required for the inclusion of such statements in this Bidder's Statement. 8.5 ACCC

Any commission payments will be paid only in respect of parcels of SGL Shares held by retail shareholders who accept the Offer.

If a commission is offered, commission payments will not exceed 0.75 per cent of the value of the consideration payable to a retail shareholder who accepts the Offer, and will be subject to minimum payments (not exceeding $50) and maximum payments (not exceeding $750) for each acceptance.

If a commission is offered, it will be payable only to brokers and will be subject to the condition that no part of the fee will be able to be passed on or paid to SGL Shareholders.

It is AGL's intention that, if and when an offer of commission has been made to any broker by AGL, the commission arrangement will remain in place for the balance of the Offer Period and the amount of the commission offered will not be increased during the Offer Period.

- you, to rescind the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act, AGL alone has the benefit of the Defeating Conditions and any breach or non-fulfilment of any such Defeating Conditions may be relied on only by AGL.
- (d) The date specified for the giving of the notice referred to in Section 630(3) of the Corporations Act as to the status of the Defeating Conditions is 5 February 2009, subject to extension in accordance with Section 630(2) of the Corporations Act if the Offer Period is extended in accordance with the Corporations Act.

- (i) AGL has not declared this Offer and all other Offers made by AGL under the Bid and all contracts resulting from the acceptance of Offers to be free from the conditions; and
- (ii) the conditions have not been fulfilled,
- then all contracts resulting from the acceptance of Offers and all Offers that have been accepted and from whose acceptance binding contracts have not yet resulted are void. In that event, AGL will, if you have accepted this Offer:
