

Emily Kucukalic

Group Head of Brand and External Relations

As Group Head of Brand and External Relations at AGL Energy, Emily Kucukalic oversees the coordinated leverage of the AGL corporate brand across every internal and external interface including media, government, investor community, our customers and the community at large.

Emily joined AGL in this newly created role after three years at EDS Asia Pacific as Marketing and Communications Director. In that role Emily oversaw all marketing, product and communications activities for the global business and technology services company ranked as one of the largest service companies on the Fortune 500.

An Ernst and Young Entrepreneur prize winner and finalist in the 2000 Telstra Business Woman of the Year award, Emily has more than ten years experience working in strategic sales and marketing roles in the IT&T and energy industries.

Previously, Emily was with Lucent Technologies, holding the roles of Strategic Marketing Manager for Australia and New Zealand, Vodafone Account Director Australia and New Zealand and finally, NextGen Account Director.

Prior to joining the IT&T industry, Emily had a diverse career at BP Amoco heading up the Telecommunications marketing division for the world's largest solar power provider, BP Solar.

Emily was a winner of Lucent Leadership Awards in 2000, 2001 and 2002 and has a Bachelor of Commerce degree with Honours in Marketing from The University of Western Australia. Emily is currently a member of the NSW Premier's Register for Boards and Committees.
