

Dispute Resolution Policy.

Not satisfied?

We want to hear from you so we can make things right.

How our Complaint Handling and Dispute Resolution Procedure works.

If you have a complaint about any aspect of AGL's service or products, please call us or write to us so that we can resolve your concerns. Our aim is to do this as quickly as we can. On some occasions we'll be able to do this at the time you call. However, more complex problems may need to be looked into further before we can get back to you. If this is the case, we'll try to resolve your complaint within 28 days of your original telephone call or receiving your letter. During this time, if we need further information from you, we'll contact you and you can always call us for an update on how we're going with the resolution.

Taking your concern to a higher level.

If you're not happy at any stage with the way we are investigating your concern, you may have your complaint handled at a higher level by the relevant manager. You may request this at any time by calling or writing to us.

Taking your concern to the Ombudsman.

We are a member of the relevant Ombudsman Scheme in the States in which we sell gas or electricity. After attempting to resolve your complaint with us, if you're not satisfied with our efforts you may contact the relevant State Ombudsman to review your complaint and our attempted resolution.

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction made to us whereby a resolution or response is expected (either explicitly or implicitly). It may be related to our products, services, policies, procedures or the complaints-handling process.

You will find that the majority of matters can be resolved through AGL's internal complaint process. We ask that you first provide us with the opportunity to exhaust all avenues in resolving your complaint. However, if you're still not satisfied with the handling of your complaint, you may wish to seek further assistance from the Ombudsman. You can also contact the Ombudsman at any time for free independent advice and information.
