

---

AGL Community Consultation Committee

Worth Recycling

March 2013

Our Company

---

WORTH RECYCLING:

- Handling, transport and treatment of wastewaters, waste oils and other wash waters
- Client contaminated solids investigations, assessments and formulation of immobilisation treatments
- Experienced team, specialising in industrial cleaning services for any size project
- Technical development and design of new and innovative waste and wastewater processing technologies
- Design, construction, installation, commissioning and operation of water recycling and wastewater treatment plants
- Development, handling and operation of innovative recovery resource initiatives

Our Company

---

KEY CLIENTS:

ExxonMobil

coles

onesteel

CORP

Partnership with AGL

---

WASTE MANAGEMENT:

- Partnership has been in place for 10 years plus

- Worth has managed the below for AGL
  - Clean produced water
  - Coal Fines
  - Oily waters and oil filters
  - Drilling Muds

- Sites includes Camden, Hunter and Gloucester

Quality Management

---

WORTH RECYCLING:

- ISO and EPA approved procedures and polices in place for waste management

- Incoming waste management to Worth facilities
  - Initially: Sample, test analysis and site inspection
  - Approval: Qualified industrial chemist's approve/reject work based on information supplied
  - Ongoing: Regular random testing on incoming loads
  - Final: Regular monitoring as per Council and EPA requirements on outgoing waters

- Outgoing Process Waters from Worth facilities
  - Licence in place for all disposal paths of process waters
  - Licence have a specification for supply
  - All outgoing waters are testing as per Council and EPA requirements to ensure we meet specifications

Process Chain - AGL

---

AGL Community Consultation Committee

Company Overview - Worth Recycling