

Gas Plan Implementation

EPA's role and responsibility

NSW EPA

The NSW Environment Protection Authority is the state primary environmental regulator

Gas regulation historically in NSW

- Concern around CSG activities on human health and environment
- Appropriate regulatory authorities (ARA) for CSG activities

EPA role strengthened for CSG

NSW Government announcement to strengthen CSG Regulation in NSW (2013)

EPA becomes lead regulator for CSG environmental regulation (2013)

Chief Scientist & Engineer's Coal Seam Gas Review commenced (2013)

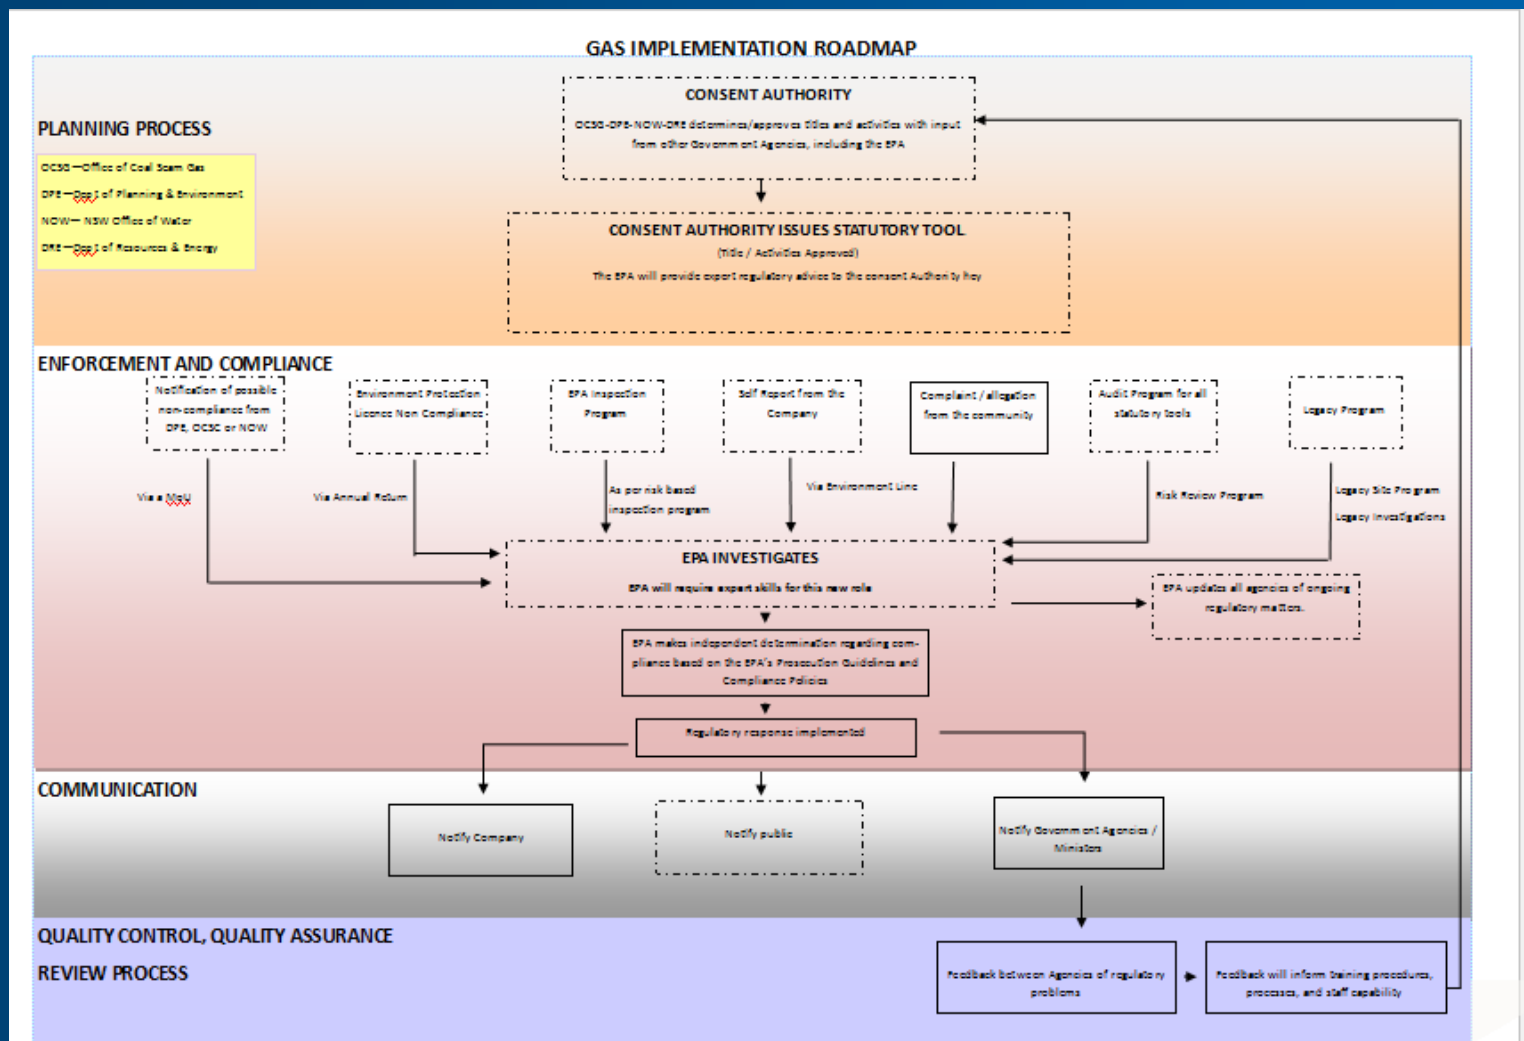

NSW Gas Plan announces EPA as the lead regulator for Gas Industry (2014)

Legislative changes to come

Legislative changes will be made to empower the EPA as lead regulator for petroleum activities

How will EPA obtain information?

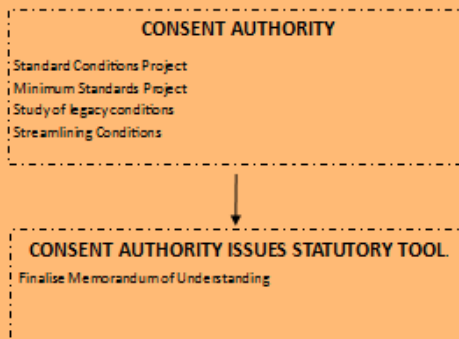

Current projects the EPA is working on

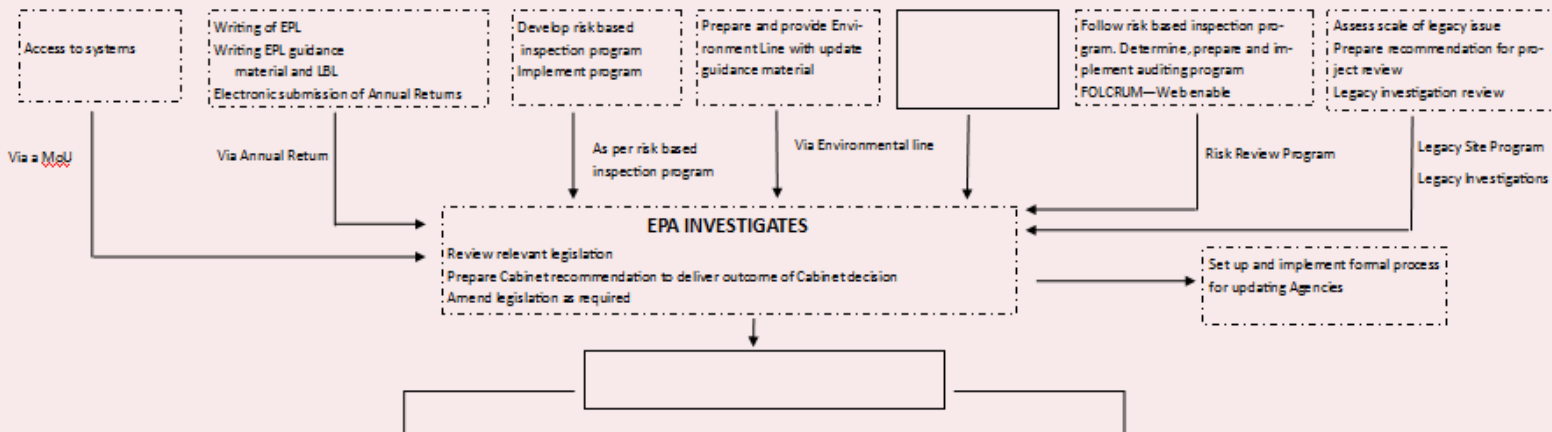

APPROVAL

22—Enabling Works (Resourcing)

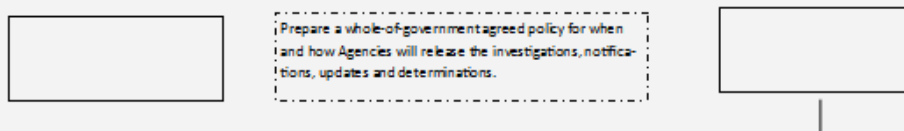

- Recruit to positions and scope projects 1—21
- Increase the EPA's awareness and knowledge base around these increased functions and roles
- Prepare financial briefing
- Prepare background GIS data
- Develop communications plan

Compliance and enforcement

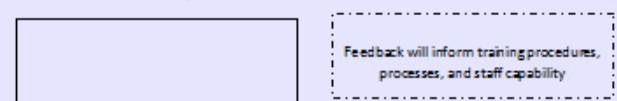

NOTIFICATION

QUALITY CONTROL, QUALITY ASSURANCE

REVIEW PROCESS

Questions

