ACCC allows AGL to proceed with acquisition of Loy Yang A power station and adjacent coal mine

AGL announces $900 million 1 for 6 pro rata renounceable entitlement offer

AGL Energy Limited (AGL) today announced that the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission (ACCC) has advised the company that it can proceed with the acquisition of the Loy Yang A power station and adjacent coal mine. AGL will now apply to the Federal Court for removal of certain undertakings and expects completion around 30 June 2012.

Subsequently, AGL today announced it is seeking to raise approximately $900 million via a fully underwritten 1 for 6 pro rata accelerated renounceable entitlement offer with retail entitlements trading (Entitlement Offer).

The key details of the Entitlement Offer are:

- Fully underwritten 1 for 6 pro rata accelerated renounceable entitlement offer with retail entitlements trading to raise approximately $900 million
- Offer price of $11.60 per new share
- Institutional Entitlement Offer is accelerated
- Retail entitlements may be traded on ASX from Tuesday, 29 May 2012 to Tuesday, 12 June 2012

The offer price of $11.60 per new share represents:

- a 22.3% discount to last close; and
- a 19.7% discount to the theoretical ex-rights price (TERP).¹

AGL's CEO and Managing Director Michael Fraser said: "This acquisition represents a unique opportunity to acquire a high quality generation asset and a long term fuel resource. The acquisition is expected to be accretive to underlying earnings per share from FY2013 and the entitlement offer presents an excellent opportunity for AGL shareholders to further increase their investment in AGL as part of a transaction that AGL considers highly attractive."

¹ The theoretical ex-rights price is the theoretical price at which AGL shares should trade immediately after the ex-date for the Entitlement Offer. The theoretical ex-rights price is a theoretical calculation only and the actual price at which AGL shares trade immediately after the ex-date for the Entitlement Offer will depend on many factors and may not be equal to the theoretical ex-rights price.

Proceeds from the Entitlement Offer will be used to fund the acquisition of the 67.5% of Great Energy Alliance Corporation Pty Limited (GEAC) not currently owned by AGL, which was announced on 24 February 2012 (Acquisition), to allow partial repayment of existing GEAC bank loans, and for general corporate purposes including renewable energy generation. GEAC is the owner of the 2,210 MW Loy Yang A power station and an adjacent brown coal mine which supplies all the coal required to meet the current and future operating requirements of the power station.

Loy Yang A is the largest power station in Victoria, producing approximately 30% of Victoria's electricity requirements. The adjacent coal mine is the largest brown coal mine in Australia, with an estimated coal reserve of 2.5 billion tonnes², providing a long term dedicated fuel resource.

Status of the Acquisition

Following the announcement of the Acquisition on 24 February 2012, the ACCC today has indicated it will not oppose the transaction.

Financial close of the Acquisition is expected to be finalised around 30 June 2012, subject to the satisfaction of a number of conditions, including:

- > removal of current Federal Court undertakings which limit AGL's ownership of GEAC to a maximum of 35 per cent; and
- > GEAC having received, or having an enforceable right to receive, the first carbon assistance payment from the Federal Government.

AGL is confident that both of these conditions are likely to be met in the coming weeks.

Business update

AGL reaffirms 2012 Underlying Profit³ guidance of $470 million to $500 million, assuming normal market conditions.

AGL expects to pay the 2012 final dividend (fully franked) on the expanded share capital.

Entitlement Offer

The Entitlement Offer comprises an accelerated institutional entitlement offer and a retail entitlement offer that includes the ability to trade retail entitlements on the ASX.

Under the Entitlement Offer, eligible shareholders are invited to subscribe for 1 new AGL ordinary share (New Shares) for every 6 existing AGL ordinary shares held as at 7.00pm (Sydney time) on Tuesday, 29 May 2012 (Record Date) (Entitlement).

New Shares will be fully paid and rank equally in all respects with existing AGL ordinary shares from allotment and will be entitled to dividends on the same basis as existing Shares, starting with the 2012 final dividend expected to be declared as part of AGL's full year results announcements for the financial year ending 30 June 2012.

² See the investor presentation which AGL has filed with ASX today for further details regarding the coal reserves.

³ Underlying Profit is defined as Statutory Profit adjusted for significant items and changes in fair value of financial instruments.

Institutional Entitlement Offer

Eligible institutional shareholders will be invited to participate in the institutional entitlement offer which will take place from Thursday, 24 May 2012 to Friday, 25 May 2012 (Institutional Entitlement Offer).

Eligible institutional shareholders can choose to take up all, part or none of their Entitlement. Institutional entitlements cannot be traded on the ASX.

Institutional entitlements which are not taken up by eligible institutional shareholders by the close of the Institutional Entitlement Offer, and institutional entitlements that would otherwise have been offered to ineligible institutional shareholders, will be sold through an institutional shortfall bookbuild on Monday, 28 May 2012. Any proceeds from the sale of institutional Entitlements under the institutional shortfall bookbuild will be remitted proportionally to those institutional shareholders less any applicable withholding tax. There is no guarantee that the highest price will be accepted or that there will be any proceeds remitted to those institutional shareholders.

Retail Entitlement Offer

Eligible retail shareholders will be invited to participate in the retail entitlement offer at the same offer price and offer ratio as the Institutional Entitlement Offer (Retail Entitlement Offer). The Retail Entitlement Offer will open on Wednesday, 30 May 2012 and close at 5.00pm (Sydney time) on Tuesday, 19 June 2012.

Eligible retail shareholders will be allotted Entitlements which can be traded on the ASX from Tuesday, 29 May 2012 to Monday, 4 June 2012 on a deferred settlement basis and from Tuesday, 5 June 2012 to Tuesday, 12 June 2012 on a normal settlement basis. This means that eligible retail shareholders who do not wish to take up all or part of their Entitlements can seek to sell all or part of their Entitlements on the ASX in order to realise value for those Entitlements ahead of the retail shortfall bookbuild (discussed below).

Retail Entitlements which are not taken up by eligible retail shareholders by the close of the Retail Entitlement Offer and Entitlements that would otherwise have been offered to ineligible retail shareholders will be sold through the retail shortfall bookbuild on Friday, 22 June 2012. Any proceeds from the sale of Entitlements under the retail shortfall bookbuild will be remitted proportionally to those retail shareholders, less any applicable withholding tax. There is no guarantee that the highest price will be accepted or that there will be any proceeds remitted to those retail shareholders.

Eligible retail shareholders wishing to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer should carefully read the retail offer booklet and an accompanying personalised entitlement and acceptance form which are expected to be despatched on Monday, 4 June 2012. Copies of the retail offer booklet will be available on the ASX website and our website at www.agl.com.au from Wednesday, 30 May 2012.

The Entitlements may only be exercised by eligible retail shareholders, persons with a registered address in Australia or New Zealand and certain categories of investors in Canada, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Norway, Singapore, Sweden, Switzerland, United Arab Emirates and the United Kingdom. In addition, Entitlements may only be purchased by persons meeting certain eligibility criteria that are set out in the Appendix to the investor presentation which AGL has filed with the ASX today. In particular, persons in the United States and persons acting for the account or benefit of a person in the United States will not be eligible to purchase Entitlements on the ASX or exercise Entitlements purchased on the ASX or transferred directly from another person.

It is the responsibility of purchasers of Entitlements to inform themselves of the eligibility criteria for exercise of Entitlements. If holders of Entitlements after the end of the trading period do not meet the eligibility criteria, they will not be able to exercise the Entitlements. In the event that holders are not able to take up their Entitlements, those Entitlements will be sold into the retail shortfall bookbuild and holders may receive no value for them.
