

AGL Device Payment Plan

Terms and Conditions

Information about this plan

A Device Payment Plan (DPP) provides you with an option to pay the full cost of any device purchased from us (Device Charges) over a 12- or 24-month term. When you sign up to an eligible plan, you have the ability to purchase a device and pay the cost over a longer period.

There is a limit of 1 DPP per eligible nbn[®] plan and a DPP can only be used to purchase eligible devices such as modems. If you purchase 2 or 3 devices, a DPP will apply to only one of the devices.

Eligibility

Who is eligible and what options are available?

To be eligible for a DPP, you must purchase an eligible device with an eligible nbn plan under the same account. For details of eligible plans, please speak to our sales or customer service representatives or see our website. All customers must pass our credit assessment to be eligible to use a DPP.

When you cancel your DPP

If you cancel your nbn plan or your DPP before the end of the 12- or 24- month term, you will need to pay out the remaining Device Charges that you owe on the device which you purchased. This is the case even if you are cancelling your nbn plan because of a change that we have made under our Standard Form of Agreement which can be found on our website.

The remaining Device Charge is calculated by multiplying the monthly device payment fee by the number of months remaining on DPP. This will be paid as a lump sum on your next bill.

For example, if you are on a DPP of $12.41/month over 12 months and you cancel your plan 6 months into the 12-month term, your remaining Device Charge will be calculated as $12.41 x 6 months remaining = $74.46.

Other information

Conditions

- Once you receive your device, you will own it (even after you cancel your DPP). You will be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the device, subject to manufacturer's warranty and your Australian Consumer Law rights.
- The device cannot be replaced or refunded to you because of change of mind, unless cooling-off period applies.
- You are responsible for a device owned by us if the device is on your property, in your possession or under your control and you must take reasonable steps to ensure that the device is not lost, damaged or stolen. Any loss or damage to, or theft of, that device that is caused by a failure by you to take these reasonable steps, is your responsibility, unless it is caused by us, our staff or our Suppliers.

- You cannot upgrade or downgrade your DPP. If you wish to alter your existing DPP you may be charged the remaining Device Charges before you sign-up for a new DPP.
